

Tri-County Mental Health Services Welcomes New Board Member

Lewiston, Tri-County Mental Health Services has appointed Ms. Jodi Cornelio to its Board of Directors. Ms. Cornelio has spent much of her life serving the people and organizations in her community. She graduated from the University of Maine system with an AS and a BA in Nutrition and a BA in Community Health. She earned her MBA from Thomas College. Jodi is the owner of Turner Publishing, Inc. in Turner, Maine. Turner Publishing is the producer of 17 of our community newspapers providing "Good News" to over 240,000 Maine homes. She has also filled a number of roles in the community, most recently serving on the board of Healthy Androscoggin. She is a volunteer for the "Shriner Festival of Trees," a member of the Central Maine Medical Center Associates Committee, and the Fundraising Committee of St. Mary's Regional Medical Center.

Jodi is currently a member of 11 chambers of commerce in Maine. She is well versed in physical health and a certified personal trainer, Pilates instructor, dance instructor, and a 3rd level yoga enthusiast. She also writes a monthly health column in Turner's community newspapers.

Tri-County Mental Health Services is very pleased to welcome Jodi to its Board of Directors and is excited that she will become a member of the Development Committee of the Board.

####

To learn more about Tri-County Mental Health Services, visit www.tcmhs.org or find us Facebook.